

Mia and the beanstalk

One sunny morning, an 8 year old girl named Mia lived with her mother and her sister in a poor village near the market. They lived in an old house. One day Mia's mother said to sell Lilly the cow, sadly she walked to the market. An old man wearing a black big mask appeared, he said "Give me the cow and I will give you magical beans." He opened his hand and Mia peeked inside and gasped in surprise at the beans that sparkled like crystal light. She sold the cow thinking that her mum will be proud. She told her mum what she did, that made Mia's mum furious so Mia's mum threw the beans out the window. Mia was sad so she cried in her bed. In the morning Mia opened her window and saw the big beanstalk and she was surprised at the beanstalk. She went outside and climbed the beanstalk, when she climbed the top she saw a castle. She opened the massive door and bravely stepped inside the big bright grey castle. All the furniture was giant and Mia found a hen laying golden eggs on the chair. The giant saw a girl but the giant was walking saying "Fi gogem I smell a girl!" Mia ran, then she found a golden heart so she stole the heart and started running. The giant was very mad and Mia climbed down the beanstalk, after she touched the ground she got an axe chopped the beanstalk and the giant was gone. Mia's mum ran to Mia and told her to sell it so they had money and they were happy ever after.
