

Aunt Spome is a vile, evil woman who has as spherical, tremendous tummy like overboiled cabbage. There is a shadowy, creepy dress that makes her tummy show. She has vile, yellow teeth that you don't want to be anywhere near. Also she has a brutal mouth that she uses to speak cruelly to people. You do not want to encounter this evil, strict Aunt because she speaks so cruelly to everybody she sees in her path.

Aunt Spiker was so thin, slim and bony that she could fit through any narrow and tiny gap. On Aunt Spiker's face she had transparent, see-through glasses that she uses to see things better. Whenever she sees someone in her path she uses her dry lips to speak cruelly to that person and when she speaks she lets out an unpleasant, vile breath that the plants surrounding her will kill all.
