

I'm broken and stressed in so many ways.
I feel helpless I need to go back home.
Without you I find myself stranded here.
Further away I pull myself from you.
I am held captive by my doubts and pain.
But then you encircle me with your words.
Your smile outshines the brightest of days.
Suddenly my course shone back to you dear.
The boat wrecked, you're gone, it's plain to see.
The wings of love were made for you and I.
My life is complete with you by my side.
True love is forever. I Love you ♥.
