

Amy's surprise

On a sunny day, Amy got 7 yummy fruits and put them in her basket. She wanted to surprise her friend Sarah with lots of fruits. She walked to the next village. It was very hot. First, the furry monkey stole the soft yellow banana. Then, a tall ostrich took the hard, wet guava but Amy did not notice. She just kept on walking. Next, the stripey zebra grabbed the juicy orange from the straw basket. Amy did not see so she kept on walking. After that, a huge, grey elephant took a slimy, sweet mango. Next, a tall giraffe stole a spikey pineapple but Amy did not know. Then a strong antelope took a green avocado and a colourful parrot took a purple passionfruit. Luckily a fast goat crashed into a leafy tree and thousands of tangerines fell into Amy's basket. Soon she arrived at Sarah's village. They were both surprised.
