

Katniss Everdeen.

Rebellious, resilient and reliable are the words to describe this talented being. Despite being as fragile as a piece of glass, Katniss Everdeen is capable of completing many difficult tasks. After the loss of her father, Miss Everdeen has had to feed her entire family, proving her strengths.

Her crystal blue eyes could easily deceive any predator, as well as her natural beauty. Due to the fact every arrow she shoots towards a squirrel aims in its eyes, it is clear she is as fierce as a lioness. With survival being her second nature, she crosses boundaries daily as well as putting her life on the line for her unsuppressible need to provide. As of a result of not showing her true colours to anyone but her dear companion (Gale) this juvenile is often mistrusting and always observant. Unlike many people, this young warrior breaks through perilous dangers with ease: she was taught archery by her late father. Having a deep love for her family, she makes a commitment towards showing up to the pool daily - a trading centre -.
