

The Minotaur

Instead of a soul, he is filled with evil and death in his heart. When you look into his sire-line eyes you can see nothing but pure darkness. His horns are made out of metal but coloured like blood.

Unlike any other bulls nose there is a silver ring that is used to control him but he is uncontrollable. Also, unlike any other bull he has teeth as sharp as a lions. Being his normal self, he is a predator but a bull eats grass. This bull eats human flesh. His body is like a strong mans. but muscular and stronger.
