

Olivia Swirling Springers

Have you dreamt of being a firework-maker because all night long it is pitch black? Well don't stop reading now this might end up being the best day of your life.

If you are not scardy-cat go and search for:

- Charcoal
- Fluff of two squirrels
- Enchanted water
- Bath bombs
- Pains (opichpat)
- Skin of a cow

(1) Just before you even think about starting you will need to grab a little glass cup for something ultra rare!

(2) If you are not a scardy-cat go and (carefully) search out for ENCHANTED water. Then pour it in the mini-glass.

(3) After you done pouring in the enchanted water, start chucking in bath bombs but do NOT drop them.

(4) This time you'll require some charcoal and start crushing them so then sprinkle a quarter into the enchanted water.
