

Nocturnal Animals

Nocturnal animals sleep during the day. At night they are more active and they hunt for food.

Hedgehogs

They eat small creatures. Hedgehogs are nocturnal animals. They can roll into a ball. They have spines on their back. They sleep in nests.

Bats

Bats live in dark places. At night they hunt for food. They eat flowers, fish and lizards and frogs. They are black and furry. They also sleep upside down. Did you know? There are 1400 different types of bats in the world.

Owls

Owls have orange eyes, they have white wings. They sleep in nests. Owls eat mice, frogs and snakes. They hunt during the night.