Pyjama Reading Day!

Dear Parents /Carers

At Quarry Hill, we are passionate about reading and following on from the success of World Book Day, we have decided to hold a cosy pyjama reading day on Friday 17th May.

Most of our children read before bed and so we thought what better than to celebrate everything we love about reading by being dressed in our comfiest clothes! This is an opportunity for your child to come to school in either their favourite pyjamas or comfy loungewear and bring in a treasured bedtime story book.

To further enhance our love of reading we are kickstarting a new reading challenge - look out for this in your child's reading record soon. Each week that their reading record is signed at least three times they will earn some exciting rewards!

If your child's reading record has been lost or damaged whilst in your child's possession, you may be asked to fund the replacement cost, please speak to your child's teacher.

Everyone has pyjamas or comfy clothes and bedtime books at home so we look forward to seeing them all on 17th May!

Happy Reading.
